Declaration of Absolute Independence and Pure Freedom

Nihil tam naturale est, quam eo genere quidque dissolvere, quo colligatum est

Nothing is so natural as to dissolve anything in the way in which it was made binding.

Nihil tam conveniens est naturali aequitati quam unumquodque dissolvi eo ligamine quo ligatum est

Nothing is so agreeable to natural equity as that a thing should be dissolved by the same means by which it was bound.

Nihil est magis rationi consentaneum quam eodem modo quodque dissolvere quo conflatum est

Nothing is more consonant to reason than that a thing should be dissolved in the same way in which it was created.

What was true then is true now.
