Jurisdiction and Venue

Notice to agent is notice to principal, notice to principal is notice to agent.

As the Original Jurisdiction, Original Venue and Original Law Form District Court of the United States of America has jurisdiction, pursuant to the Constitution for the United States of America c1819, and the resulting Constitutional Acts of Congress pursuant thereto, over any real-man and/or fictional entity purporting to hold office or position and/or operate in any way, shape, form, capacity and status on the soil of the United States of America or within a creature of the mind THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA and its creations and liabilities; therefore, the jurisdiction over the defendants is proper, present, and under, and out of, the authority of absolute necessity, it is by these Presents demanded to be exercised to its fullest extent, as both lawful and Equitable remedy and relief is required in this instant, private matter;

As the Original Jurisdiction, Original Venue and Original Law Form District Court of the United States of America purports to, and does in fact, exercise authority over, and lays claim to, the soil of the United States of America and the creature of the mind THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA and its creations and liabilities, I, Thomas David House of Deegan, though it has no jurisdiction over myself nor is it my actual venue, shall utilize, under and out of the authority of absolute necessity, this venue for this urgent, private matter as it is the only one currently available.

Any omission at any time is not a waiver thereof;

A copy, facsimile and/or digital scan is lawfully declared to be an original, and shall have the same force, affect and effect thereof.

I, Thomas David House of Deegan, am holder-in-due-course, secured party, grantor, bailor, administrator, creditor, custodian, beneficiary to, and for, all alleged political powers administered by legitimate and lawful governments constructed and effectuated by real-men with hands and legs including, but not limited to, services and goods providers in the nature of government, trusts, systems, networks, regimes, hierarchies and any and all other limits of any nature, kind and construction; I knowingly, willingly, intelligently and intentionally cancel and correct all presumptions and assumptions to the contrary;

I, Thomas David House of Deegan, being of absolute capacity, standing, status and responsibility, Beneficiary in fact, Heir of the Creator, under full liability and complete transparency, do by these Presents, effectuate and sue out this Bill in Equity of Accounting filed into Original Jurisdiction, Original Venue and Original Law Form for an absolute accounting, audit, discharging, payment, settling, closing and/or reconciling of any and all matters relating to, pertaining to, relevant to and/or emanating from the following, to wit:

The ~~sestauque~~ ~~vie~~ Trust, of which the Creator and myself are Grantors to and I am the sole beneficiary of, and any and all other sub and constructive trusts thereof, therefrom and thereto, is referenced by various identifiers, abbreviations, number combinations, derivatives, idem sonans, res identifier or any equivalent of the above mentioned, and/or other legal, financial and managerial forms and formats of any nature and kind, and is most often referred to as THOMAS DAVID DEEGAN, all derivatives and appellations thereof, and/or 232-11-4889; the aforementioned Trust's assets include but is not limited to, all legal, lawful and commercial debt or equity security(ies) in any form or format, credit and debit account(s) and balance(s), beneficial interest (divided and undivided), debentures, accounts, pledges, covenants, contracts, signatures, hypothecations, property(ies) (inclusive of all chattels), secured accounts, mirrored accounts, trade accounts, and/or the like, and any and all other legal, lawful and equitable interest, as Heir and Beneficiary, in all things within the Creator's Creation granted to me at the moment of Live Birth, on soil, and thereafter, and all things and matters relating to, pertaining to, relevant to and/or emanating therefrom;

All real-men and fictional entities, including but not limited to, purported government of any nature and kind, and/or their parent holding, subsidiaries, franchises, associates, affiliates, agents, assigns, successors, principals or other partnerships of any nature and kind, and their departments, and their officers, employees, agents, contractors, licensees thereto or an agent thereof, known and unknown, domestic and foreign; in nature and kind; are mere trustees and/or fiduciary trustees when purporting to be in public service and/or as soon as an Oath is taken and subscribed and/or a single Penny is taken for compensation thereof; By and pursuant to, the Principal/Agent Doctrine all defendants were noticed Lawfully of their trustee and/or fiduciary trustee status and capacity in relationship to myself on the fifteenth day of October, in the year of my Lord Jesus Christ two thousand fifteen; and further re-stated, re-ratified, re-confirmed,

Memorandum of Authorities and Principles From the Highest to the Lowest

Psalms 83:18 - That men may know that thou, whose name is Jehova, art the most high over all the earth;

Psalms 36:9 - For with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light;

2 Timothy 2:3-4 - Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ; No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier;

John 17:16-17 - They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world; Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

Ezekiel 44:24 - And in controversy they shall stand in judgment; and they shall judge it according to my judgments: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all mine assemblies; and they shall hallow my sabbaths.

Judges 17:6 - In those days there was no king in Israel, but every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

Judges 21:25 - In those days there was no king in Israel; every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

1 Corinthians 3:16 - know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

1 Corinthians 6 - Dere any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?

Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?

4 If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now, therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one ~~and~~ with another. Why do ye not rather take wrong? Why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

8 Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren.

9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

1 Corinthians 15:45 - And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.

Acts 5:29 - Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men.

Acts 10:34-35 - Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons:
But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

Act 25:15-16 - About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

To whom I answered, it is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have license to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

Romans 8:14-17 - For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God.

And if children, then heirs, heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may also be glorified together.

Romans 13:8-10 - Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.

Love worketh no ill to his neighbor: therefore love is

The fulfilling of the law.

Ephesians 2:18-19 - For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father.

Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the Saints, and of the household of God.

James 2:8 - If ye fulfil the royal law according to the Scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself, ye do well.

James 4:4 - Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

James 4:12 - There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?

James 5:12 - But above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath, but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation.

St. Luke 6:31 - And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them like wise.

St. Luke 6:35 - But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.

St. Luke 16:13 - no servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

St. Luke 19:8 - And Zacchaeus stood, and said unto the the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold.

Galatians 3:26-29 - For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female; for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

Galatians 4:7 - Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

Galatians 5:14 - For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.

TDHD certified Authorities

Equity is a kind of perfect reason which interprets and amends the written law; comprehended in no code, but consistent with reason alone.

Equity assists ignorance, but not carelessness.

Jurisdiction is not confounded by equity.

Equity will not assist unless the occasion renders it necessary.

Equity does not regard the form and circumstance, but rather the substance of the act.

Equity desires by all means to arrive at the truth.

Equity desires the spoiled, the deceived, and the ruined, above all things, to have restitution.

A person ought not to be a judge in his own cause, because he cannot be both a party and a judge.

To conceal is one thing, to be silent another.

An ambiguous answer shall be construed against him who offers it.

An argument from authority is very strong in law.

A good judge decides according to justice and right, and prefers equity to strict law.

The cause of the Church is equal to public causes; and for the best of reasons, it is the cause of religion.

No man should derive any benefit from his own wrong.

The law never permits anything contrary to truth.

There may be damage without injury.

Laws assist the deceived, not the deceiving.

The power derived cannot be greater than that from which it is derived.

Delays in law are odious.

By fraud or dolo a contract perishes.
Deceit and fraud shall excuse or benefit no man.
Wrongful intention is presumed against one engaged in an unlawful act.
Right cannot die.
In the same way in which anything is constituted, it may be destroyed.
Equity suffers not a right without a remedy.
From a wrong no contract can arise.
False in one thing, false in all things.
Things favorably considered in law are, the treasury, dower, life and liberty.
Let justice be done though the heavens fall.
Fiction yields to truth; where there is truth, fiction of law does not exist.
Fraud binds, but does not dissolve, perjury.
It is a fraud to conceal a fraud.
Fraud and deceit should benefit no one.
Fraud and justice never dwell together.
Fraud lies hidden in general expressions,
Fraud is most hateful to law.
Man is a term of nature, person of the civil law.
Ignorance of those things which one is bound to know does not excuse.
Impunity invites to greater crimes.
No one may come into court with unclean hands.
In a legal fiction equity always exists.
He truly acts fraudulently who, observing the letter of the law eludes its spirit.
Equity is to be regarded in all things, but particularly in law.

One may do with his own as he pleases, if he does not invade the rights of others.

A man should not be benefitted by his own wrong doing.

A benefit is not bestowed upon one unwilling to receive it.

It is equity that he should have satisfaction, who sustained the loss.

A judge ought to always regard equity.

It is the duty of a judge to finish the work of each day within that day.

It is a decision to favor those things that favor religion, though words be wanting.

the laws of nature are unchangeable.

By the law of nature it is just that no one become more rich by the detriment and injury of another.

Natural right is that which has the same power among all men.

the law of nature is properly the dictate of right reason, by which we know what is dishonest and what is honest, what should be done and what avoided.

It is not safe to obey him who has not right.

Justice is an excellent virtue, and pleasing to the Most High.

Justice is not to be denied, or delayed.

Law favoreth justice and right.

Law favoreth truth, faith and certainty.

the contract makes the law.

the Law of God and the Law of the land are all one.

the law delights in equity; it covets perfection; it is a rule of right.

An unjust law is not a law.

The law does not require that which is apparent to the court to be verified.

The law is the more praised when it is consonant to reason.

The law regards the order of nature.

The law assists the wakeful not the sleeping.

Liberty has no price.

Liberty is more favored than all things.

Great neglect is equivalent to fraud.

Things manifest need no proof.

A maxim is so called because its dignity is chiefest, and its authority the most certain, and because it is universally approved by all.

Many things pertain not to human laws, but to divine jurisdiction.

Multiplicity and indistinctness produce confusion.

Where the Divinity is insulted the case is unpardonable.

Nature desires perfection; so does the law.

Necessity gives a privilege with reference to private rights.

Necessity defends what it compels.

No one should interfere in another's business, in nothing relating to him.

No one should lose his property without his own act or negligence.

No one is beyond the law.

No man warring for God should be troubled by secular business.

No one can transfer to another a greater right than he has himself.

We can do nothing against truth.

Nothing which is against reason is lawful.

Nothing is so consonant to natural equity, as that the same thing be dissolved by the same means by which it was bound.

Nothing is useful or honorable that is contrary to law.

He who errs does not consent.

It is not law but servitude to be held by what we have not consented to.

Not what is said, but what is done, is to be regarded.

It matters not if a revocation is made by word or deed.

Those who err are not considered as consenting.

He is not regarded as using force, who exercises his own right and proceeds by ordinary action.

There is no loss without a remedy.

No man can forfeit the right of another.

Every word sincerely spoken constitutes an obligation.

All men are either freemen or slaves.

All shall have liberty to renounce those things which have been established in their favor.

There is no disputing against or denying principles.

Every definition in law is dangerous, for there is but little that cannot be overthrown.

Once a fraud, always a fraud.

Word of mouth flies away, things written remain.

Crimes against nature are the most heinous.

They are perjured, who, preserving the words of an oath, deceive the ears of those who receive it.

Plain truths need not be proved.

Politics are to be adapted to the laws, and not the laws to politics.

There is no doubt that the rights of others cannot be prejudiced by private agreement.

The extremes being proved, the intermediate proceedings are presumed.

Things which are forbidden in the nature of things, are confirmed by no law.

Every jurisdiction has its own limits.

He who acquires for himself, acquires for his heirs.

He who has jurisdiction to loosen, has jurisdiction to bind.

He who uses his own right harms no one.

He who acts badly, hates the light.

He who does not freely speak the truth, is a betrayer of the truth.

He who does not prevent what he can prevent, is considered as doing the thing.

He who does anything through another, is regarded as doing it himself.

They who seek a reason for everything, subvert reason.

He who is silent appears to consent.

Whatever is against the rule of right is wrong.

That which is not valid at the beginning, improves not by lapse of time.

All men are equal as far as the natural law is concerned.

What otherwise is good and just, if it be sought by force and fraud, becomes bad and unjust.

What is done contrary to law is regarded as not done.

What is inconvenient or contrary to reason is not allowed in law.

What is necessary is laudable.

Time cannot render valid an act void in its origin.

What is mine cannot be taken away without my consent.

That which is ours cannot be lost or transferred to another without our own act, or our own fault.

What is first is true, and what is first in time is best in law.

In whatever manner a thing is constituted, in the same manner it is dissolved.

Reason in law is perfect equity.
Reason is not confined to any place.
We must have recourse to what is extraordinary when what is ordinary fails.
To restore, is to give back nothing but what was taken.
The property in a thing deposited, and the possession thereof, remains in the depositor.
A mandate of an illegal thing is void.
Remedies for rights are ever favorably extended.
Everyone is the manager and disposer of his own affairs.
A thing is private which is not common.
Reservation and protest do not create a right, but protect a right.
Let the principal answer.
Rights never die.
To write is to act.
Slavery is an institution by the law of nations, by which a man is subjected to a foreign master, contrary to nature.
If any one of certain required forms be wanting, when equity requires, it will be aided.
Remove the foundation, the work falls.
That is the highest law which favors religion.
That reason is strongest which operates in favor of religion.
Suppression of the truth is equal to the expression of the false.
The owner of property is not divested of his title by a larceny of it.
Things are dissolved as they be contracted.
Things grounded upon an ill and void beginning cannot have a good perfection.

A title is the just right of possessing that which is our own.

Trusts survive.

Plain truths need not to be proved.

He who does not speak the truth freely; is a traitor to the truth.

Void things are as no things.

Words spoken vanish; words written remain
