VINTAGE CIRCUS POSTERS

“Ladies and gentlemen, children of all ages, welcome to The Greatest Show On Earth!” The Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey ringmaster’s famous words welcomed crowds to the circus, an extraordinary place brimming with irresistible attractions.

Posters gave audiences a taste of what awaited under the big top—an astounding, magical spectacle. Like the circuses they touted, the posters were big and bold. A “sheet” was 42 by 28 inches, and stunning imagery often sprawled across dozens of them at a time. Sometimes, massive arrays of posters covered entire sides of buildings.

These eye-popping early 20th-century posters showcased majestic elephants, fierce tigers, and colorful clowns, alongside acts such as acrobatic gymnasts, graceful wire dancers, and daring stuntmen.

Whether in small towns or large cities, the circus brought together folks of all ages and walks of life to share its magic and to let imaginations soar like aerialists above their daily routines and cares.

Joyful posters beckoned the masses toward the grand show, thus proving P.T. Barnum right: “The noblest art is that of making others happy.”
